Dear Friend,

I wanted to share with you what the Lord spoke to me last week. We were singing a song called "All Things are Possible" and there is a line in the song that says "Your word is living in my heart". It resounded in my mind. His word is not only "hidden" and "in the midst of" my heart but LIVING in my heart. The Lord said, "if my enemy could start at a primary place in my body and spread death, then His word in my heart could most certainly spread LIFE!! I had an x-ray of the "spot" on my sternum and it is nothing!! I got the report yesterday! Hallelujah!!! Be encouraged.

The one thing I have learned through all this is "no one is promised tomorrow". We have today. If today we stand together praising the Lord for His sovereign power and His Love for us then we have victory today. That is what counts. The more we know Him, the more we come to understand His ways and walk in them. We begin to get a glimpse of the immensity of His love and then the real miracle happens. He is seen in us.

God bless you today.

Jan
